The Constitution of the State provides that the Legislature shall consist of thirty-one Senators and not exceeding one hundred and fifty Representatives upon the ratio of not more than one Representative for every 15,000 inhabitants.

The division of the State into judicial districts is also a constitutional requirement, without limitation, however, as to number. It cannot be questioned that these districts, as now constituted, are very unequal as to the amount of work to be performed—some of the Resolved by the House of Representatives, That two thousand extra copies of today's House Journal, containing the Governor's proclamation and message, be ordered printed for the use of the members of the House.

(Mr. Lively in the chair.)

The resolution was read second time, and

Mr. Perkins offered the following amendment:

"Amend by striking out '2000' and inserting in lieu thereof '5000'."
