Speaker Turman stated that the two Houses were in Joint Session for the purpose of hearing a mes-sage from the Honorable Price Dan-iel, Governor. expected to exercise their Constitutional right to convene the Legistutional right to convene the Legis-lature to consider enactment of pro-posals which, if delayed, might re-sult in severe losses to the State and to the people, or ultimate de-feat of the legislative objectives. In this category, there are four proposals which I have carried to the people with solemn pledges of support and on which I feel there is need for action without delaying Speaker Turman presented Gover-nor Daniel to the Joint Session. Governor Daniel then addressed the Joint Session, speaking as folneed for action without delaying lows: 4.8.2 و ن 5
