- R. Buckminster Fuller
Utopia or Oblivion

Education has for its object the formation of character.

-Herbert Spencer
Social Statics

Life isn't all beer and skittles; but beer and skittles, or something of the sort, must form a good part of every Englishman's education.

- Thomas Hughes

Tom Brown's School - Days

Perhaps the most valuable result of all education is the ability to make yourself do the thing you have to do, when it ought to be done, whether you like it or not; it is the first lesson that ought to be learned, and however early a man's training begins, it is probably the last lesson that he learns thoroughly.

- Thomas Henry Huxley
Technical Education

The true test of intelligence is not how much we know how to do, but how we behave when we don't know what to do.

*- John Holt
How Children Fail*

Beyond interpretation lies practical action.

Activities

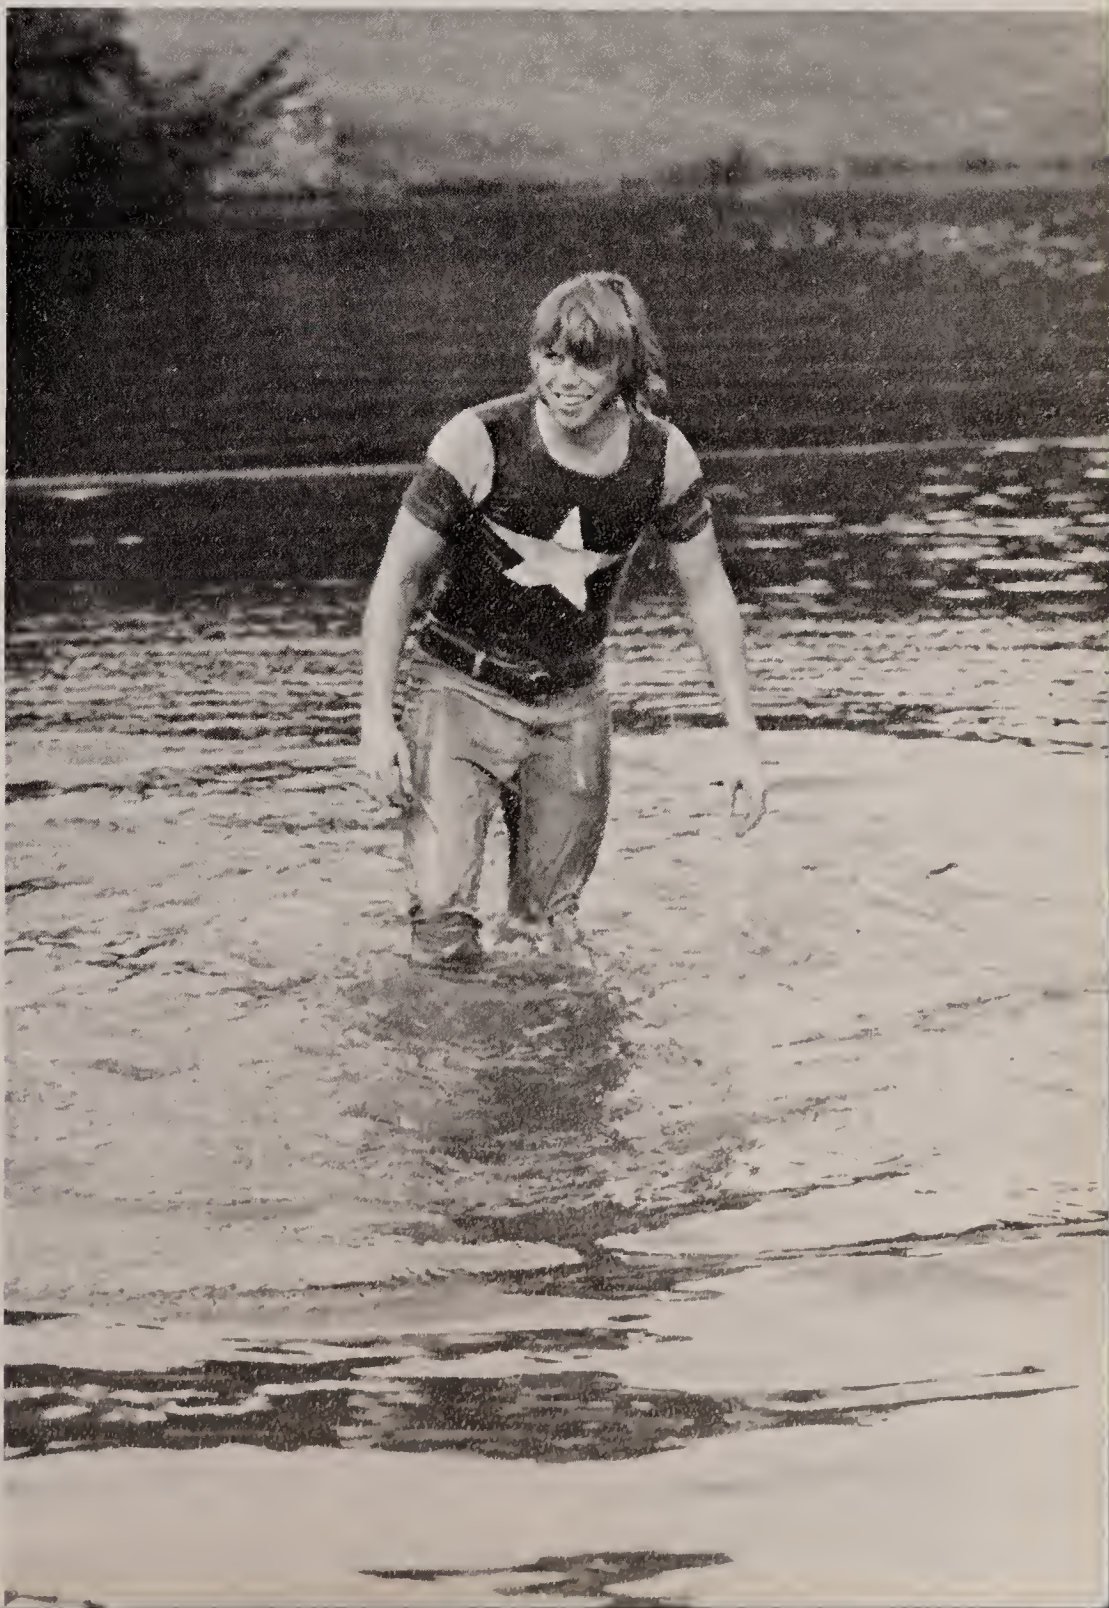

Moons and Junes and ferris wheels
The dizzy, dancing way you feel As every fairy tale comes real I've looked at love that way.
But now it's just another show
Leave them laughing when you go. .

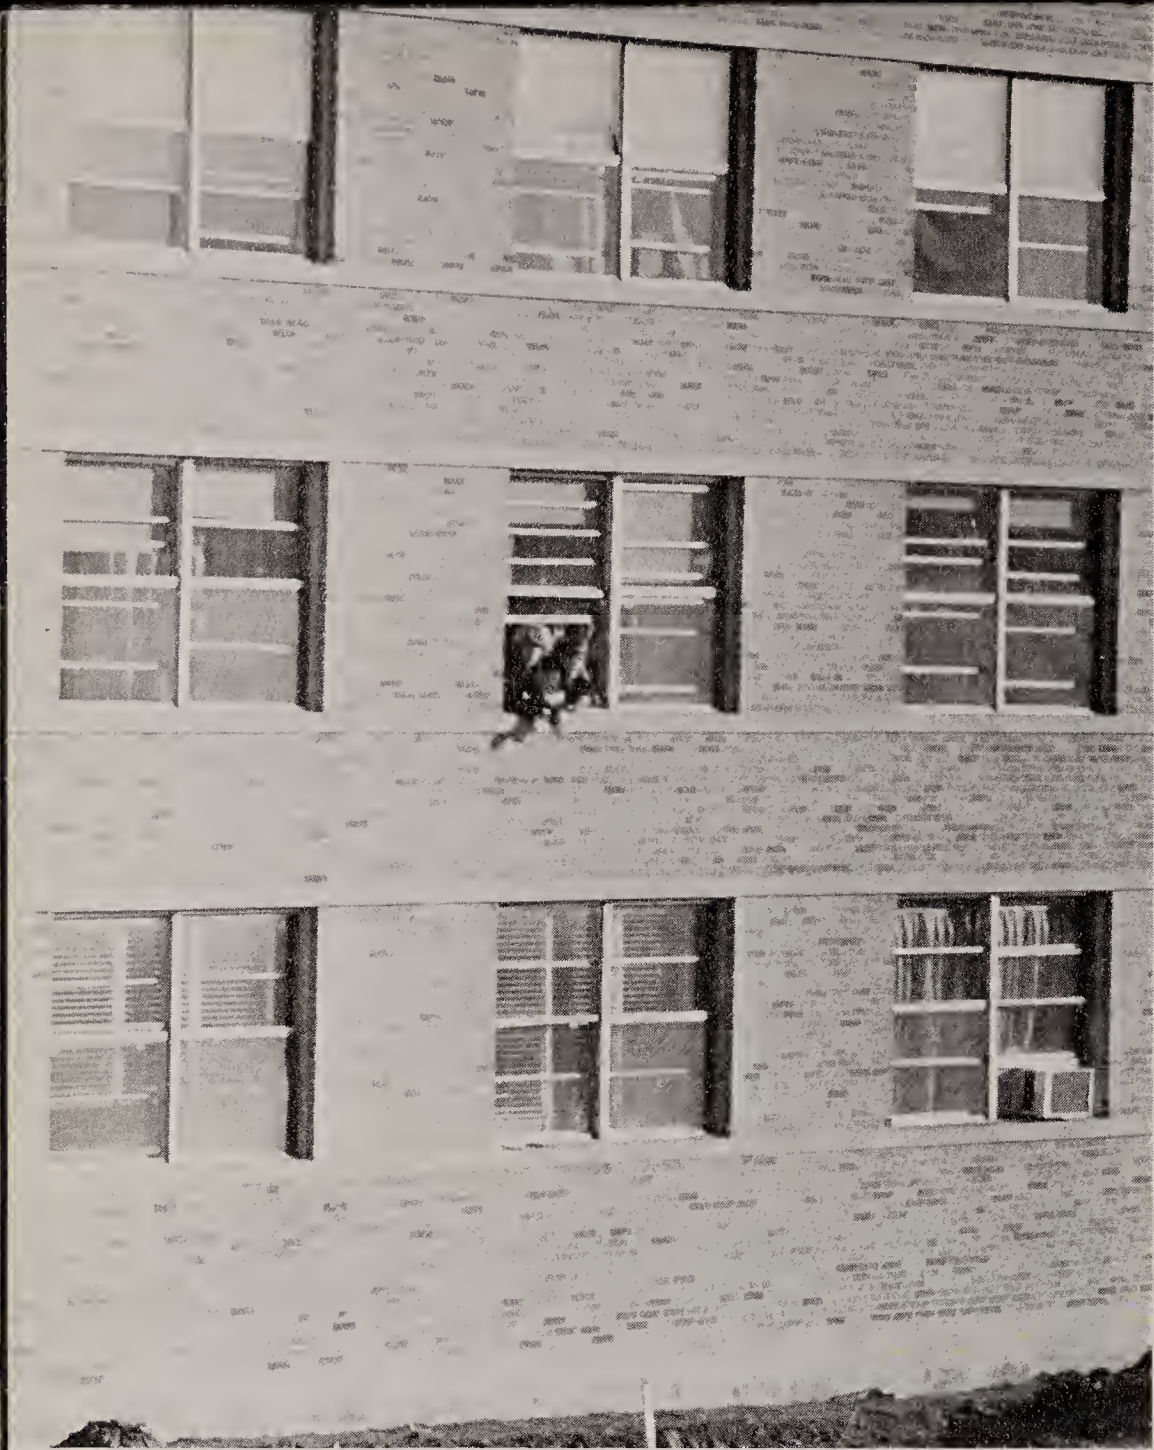

- Judy Collins

For how many things which for our own sake we should never do, do we perform for the sake of our friends.

Cicero

What is beautiful is a joy for all seasons and a possession for all eternity.

Oscar Wilde

A Teacher affects eternity; He can never tell where his influence stops .

Henry Brook Adams
The Education of Henry Adams

The happiness of life is made up of minute fractions - the little soon forgotten charities of a kiss or smile,
a kind look,
a heartfelt compliment. . . .

- Samuel Taylor Coleridge

Essay on Man

Epistle IV

We are utterly free of that institutional atmosphere which is inevitable when everyone is doing the same thing at the same time.

Our days have a roundness, a flexibility, a diversity, a flow. It's all quite pleasing and healthful.

- B. F. Skinner

Walden Two

What is mind?

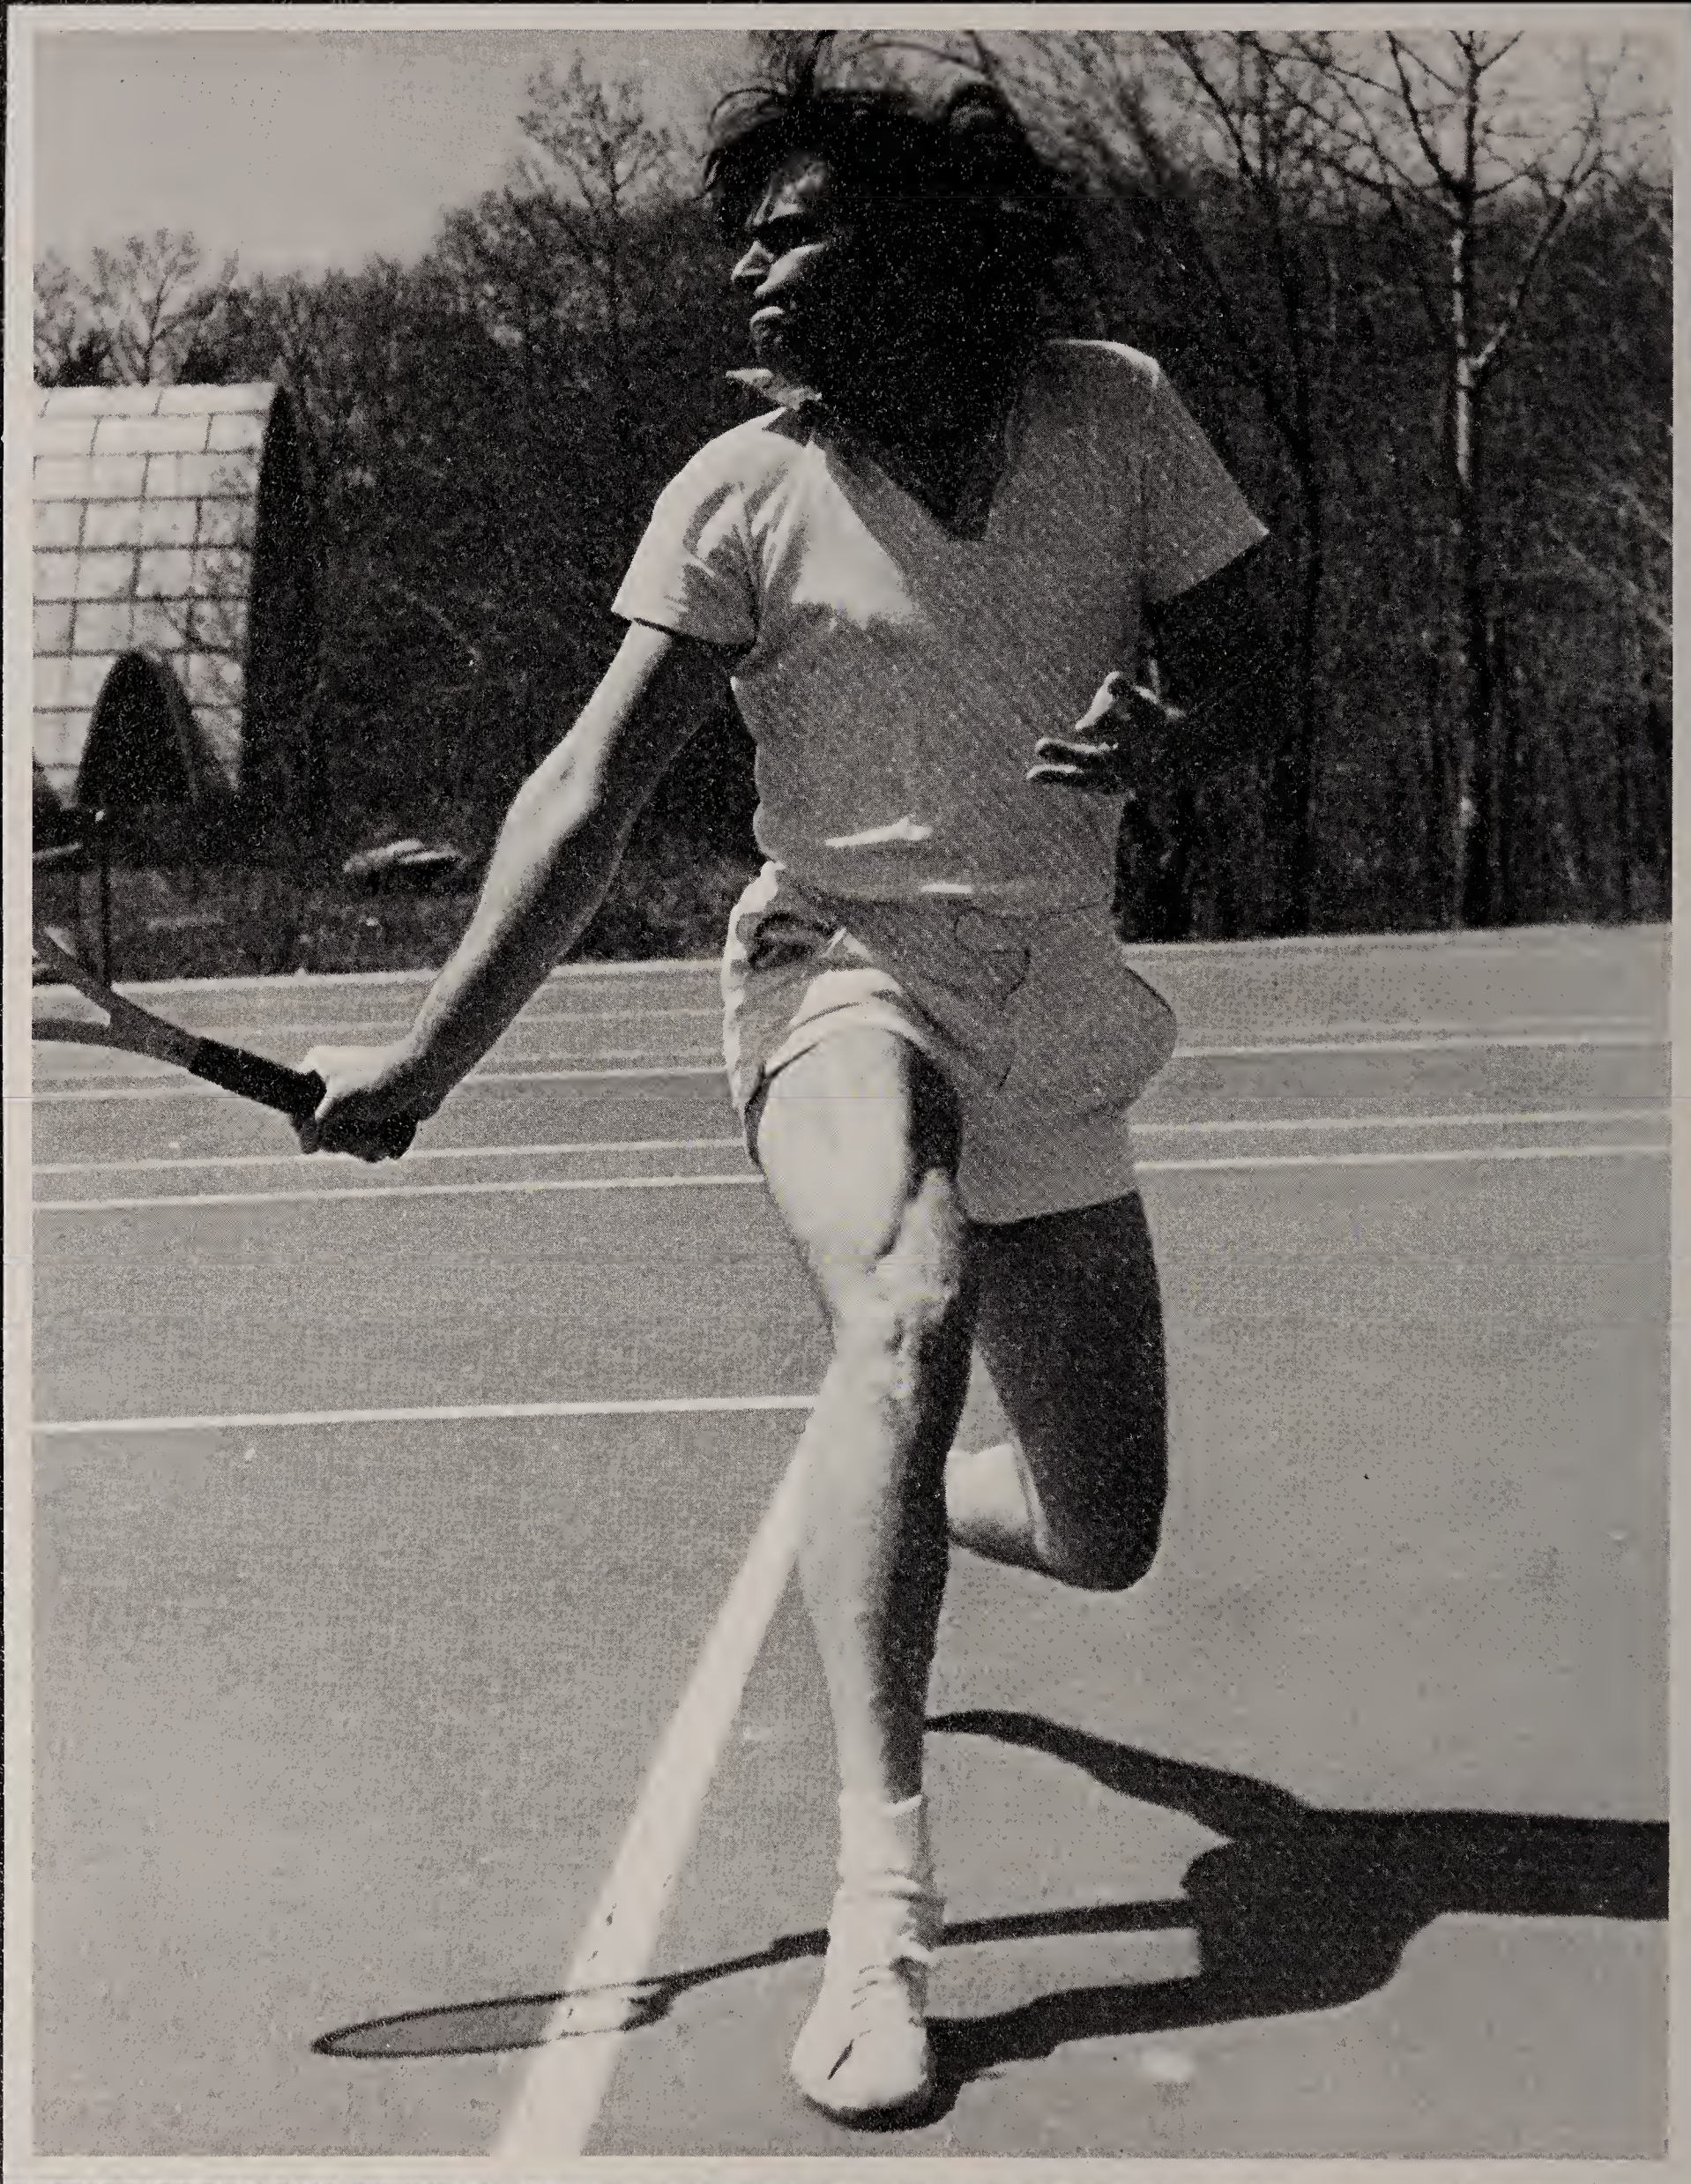

No matter.

What is matter?

Never mind.

- Thomas Hewitt Key

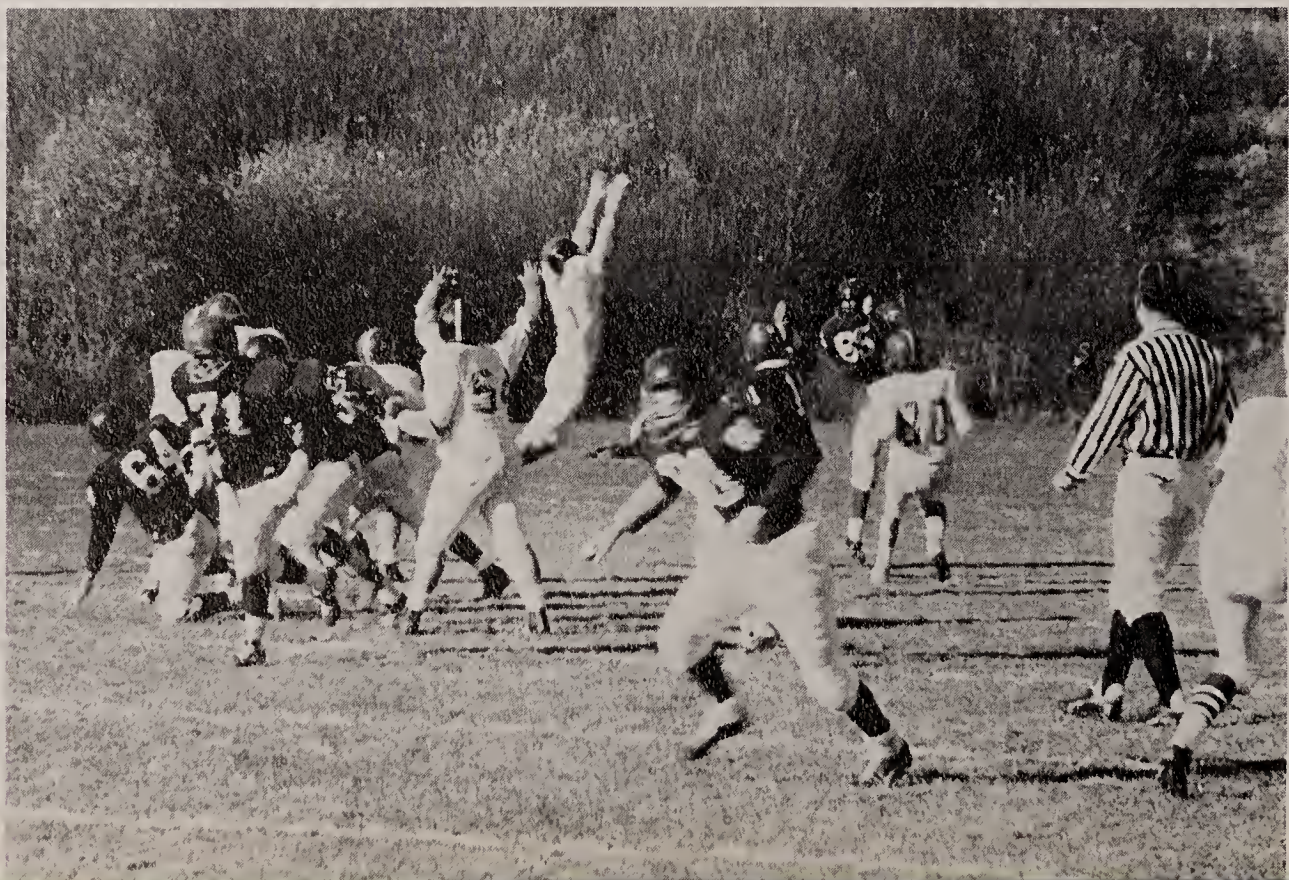

Every man is the builder of a temple, called his body, to the God he worships, after a style purely his own, . . . We are all sculptors and painters, and our material is our own flesh and blood and bones.

- Henry David Thoreau
On Man and Nature

If you aspire to the highest place it is no disgrace to stop at the second, or even the third.

- Cicero

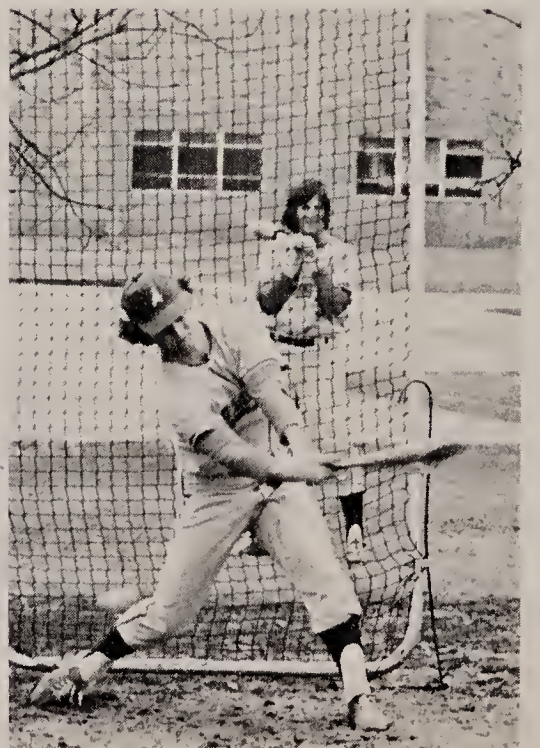

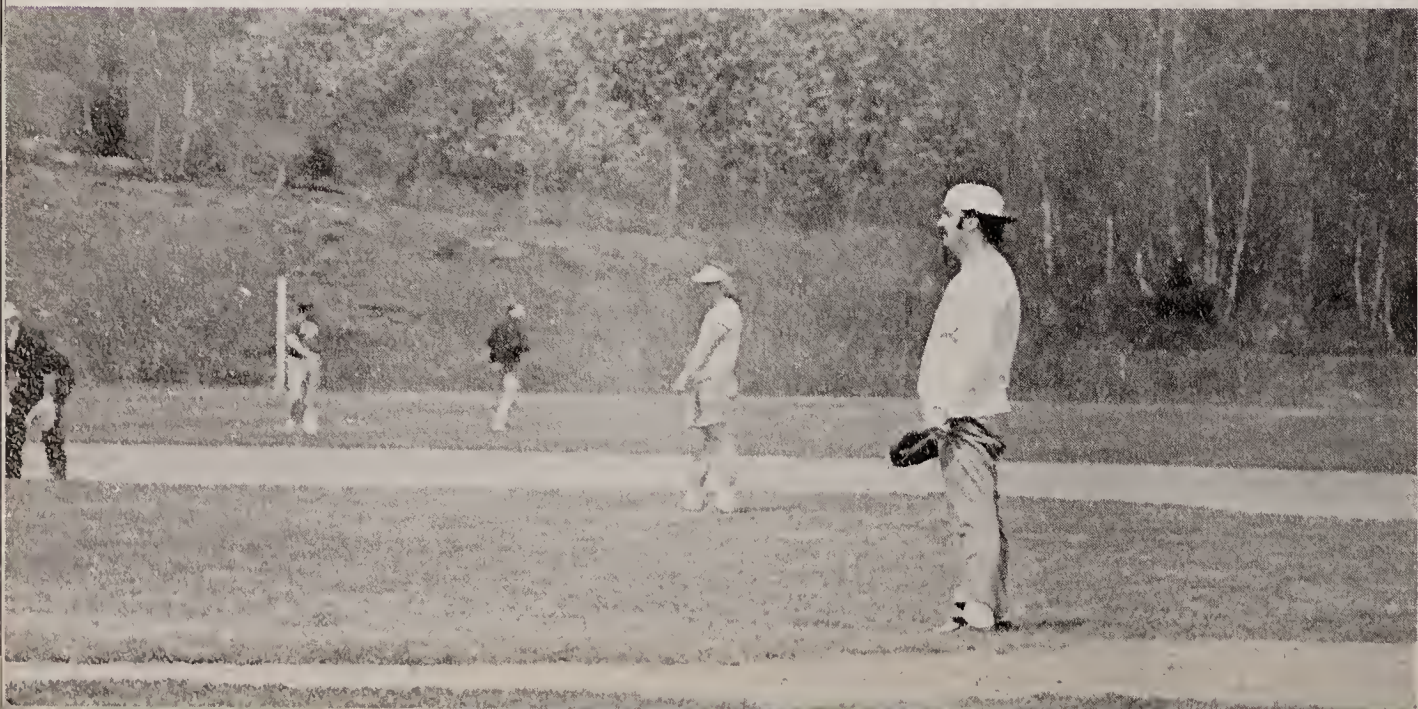

In his last battle on earth a warrior lets his spirit flow free and clear. And as he wages his battle, knowing that his will is impeccable a warrior laughs and laughs.

- Carlos Castaneda

Graduation

Time is not measured by the passing of the years, but by what one does,
what one feels,
and what one achieves.

- Jawaharal Nehru

This road certainly leads me strife, but I shall not give up.
I will not grieve over the past - for why grieve?
I will hurry along the path I have discovered, greeting those whom I meet on my way, not looking back as did Lot's wife, but remembering that it is a hill up which we have to struggle.

- The Journals of Kierkegaard

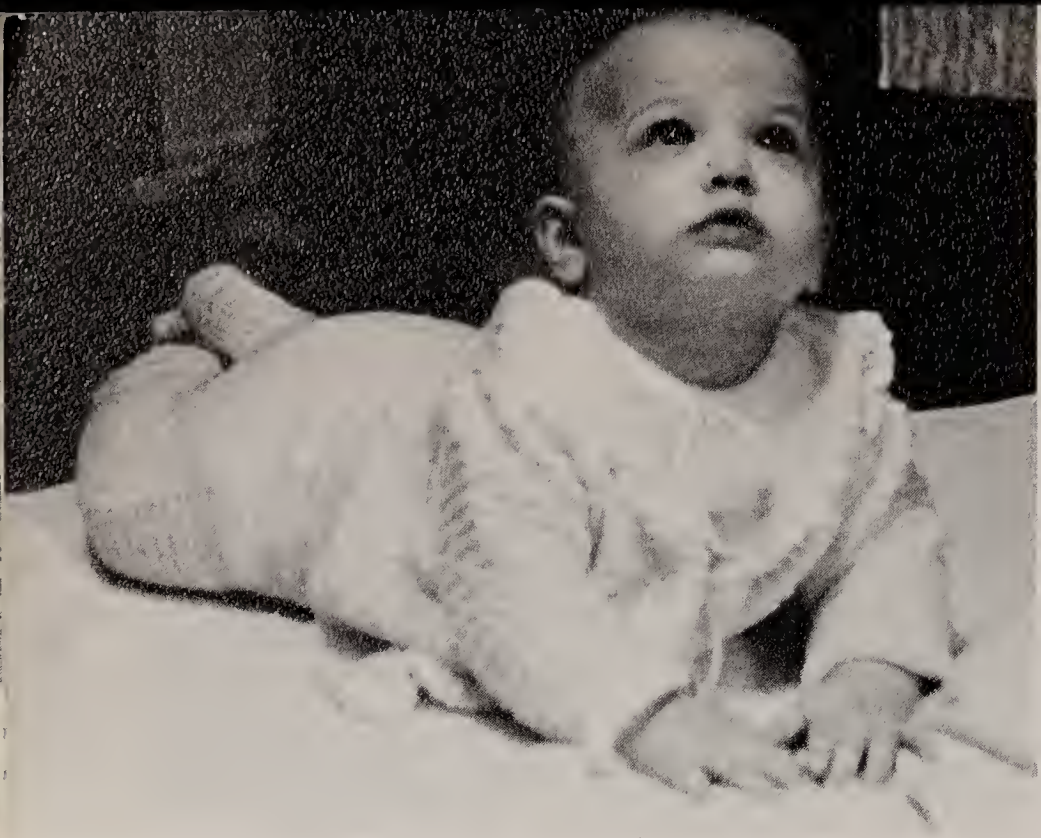

Ideals are like stars . You will not succeed in touching them with your hands. But like the seafaring man on the desert of waters, you choose them as your guides, and following them you will reach your destiny.

-Carl Schurz
Address, Faneul Hall, Boston

Yesterday is already a dream and tomorrow is only a vision, but today well-lived makes every yesterday a dream of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope.

-The Sanskrit

Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you.
It was but yesterday we met in a dream.
You have sung to me in my aloneness, and I of your longings have built a tower in the sky.
But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over,
and it is no longer dawn.
The noontide is upon us and our half waking has turned to fuller day, and we must part.
If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more,
we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song.
And if our hands should meet in another dream we shall build another tower in the sky.

- Kahlil Gibran
The Prophet
