Wikipedia Zero Initiative

Dear Mr. Mompoti Dikunwane

RE: INVITATION TO PARTNER WITH BTCL FOUNDATION FOR GIRLS IN ICT COMMEMORATION

It is my pleasure to invite you, in your capacity as Wikimedian working under governance of the Wikimedia Foundation, to partner with BTCL Foundation to the Girls in ICT Commemoration.

The main objective of Girls in ICT is to encourage and empower young girls into exploring their career in ICT. As a norm, Botswana Telecommunications Corporation Limited (BTCL) takes part in commemorating Girls in ICT (GICT) which is held the last Thursday of April annually. Due to logistical challenges experienced this year, the event will be celebrated on the 17th May, 2017 in Masunga Senior Secondary School from 0800hrs-1415hrs.

The event is purely a Corporate Social Initiative and stakeholders involved offer their services for free. You have been scheduled to present the "Wikipedia Zero Initiative" from 1030hrs-1045hrs. Your presence will be highly appreciated at this momentous occasion to empower the Masunga girls in broadening their horizons in terms of ICT.

Kindly confirm your attendance.

Yours faithfully,

BOIKETLO MOLELEKI
