Novello and Company
(1880)

Sir Alexander Campbell Mackenzie (1847-1935) was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, into a musical family. At the age of eight he was playing nightly in his father's orchestra and soon was sent to Germany for his musical education. In 1862, he was admitted to the Royal Academy of Music in London. He was awarded a King's Scholarship and augmented the income by playing in theatre and music hall pit-bands, as well as in classical concerts. In 1865 Mackenzie returned to Edinburgh, teaching privately and in local colleges and, in 1873, conducting the Scottish Vocal Association. Mackenzie's heavy workload began to undermine his health. He began composing full-time, spending much time in the company of Franz Liszt. In early 1888 Mackenzie was appointed as the principal of the Royal Academy of Music, a post he held for 36 years until his retirement in 1924. Together with Hubert Parry and

I LOVE the dews of night,
I love the howling wind;
I love to hear the tempest sweep
O'er the billows of the deep!
For nature's saddest scenes delight
The melancholy mind.

Autumn! I love thy bower
With faded garlands drest:
How sweet, alone to linger there,
When tempests ride the midnight air!
To snatch from mirth a fleeting hour,
The sabbath of the breast!

Autumn! I love thee well;
Though bleak thy breezes blow,
I love to see the vapors rise,
And clouds roll wildly round the skies,
Where from the plain, the mountains swell,
And foaming torrents flow.

Autumn! thy fading flowers
Droop but to bloom again;
So man, though doom'd to grief awhile,
To hang on fortune's fickle smile,
Shall glow in heaven with nobler powers,
Nor sigh for peace in vain.

Nathaniel Appleton Haven (1790-1826)
