

Unknown Author,
First appearing in Carrell, 1821

Geneva

Transcribed from Songs of Zion, 1821

F Major
James P. Carrell, 1821

Tr.  5 10

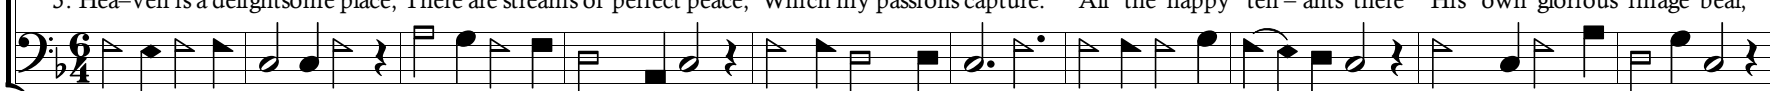

1. Come, my friends, and taste with me Full salvation running free, Je - sus now in-vites us: He presents his charming grace; See his love-ly smi-ling face!

C.

2. Earthly comfort soon will fly, And its joys will shortly die, Fa- ding fast, they leave us; Beauteous grace your Lord will grant, He'll supply your every want;

T.  8

3. Hea-ven is a delightful place, There are streams of perfect peace, Which my passions capture: All the happy ten - ants there His own glorious image bear,

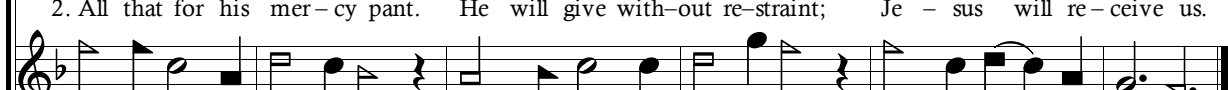

B.

Tr.  15

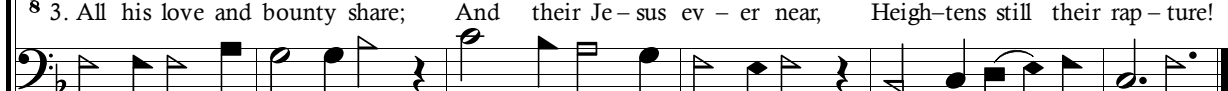

1. Will you now your Lord embrace, Heav'n and all its hap - pi - ness, Which to him u - nites us?

C.

2. All that for his mer - cy pant. He will give with-out re-straint; Je - sus will re - ceive us.

T.  8

3. All his love and bounty share; And their Je - sus ev - er near, Heigh-tens still their rap - ture!

B.

Edited by B. C. Johnston, 2017

1. Measure 3, Bass: last note changed from B to F.