

Anonymous Author, before 1790
11 11. 11 11.

Redemption Hymn

Transcribed from Ingalls' Christian Harmony, 1805.

A Major
Jeremiah Ingalls, 1805

1. Come friends and relations, let's join heart and hand, The voice of the tur - tle is heard in our land; Let's all walk together, and follow the sound, And march to the
2. The place it is hidden, the place is con-cealed, No mor-tal can know it un-til 'tis re-vealed; The place is in Je-sus, to Je-sus we'll go, And there find re-
3. And you, my dear brethren, who love my dear Lord, Who've witnessed free pardon through faith in his word, Let patience attend you wherever you be. Your Savior has
4. We read of com-mo-tions and signs in the skies, The sun and the moon shall be clothed in disguise; And when you shall see all these tokens appear, Then lift up your
5. Oh then the Archangel the trumpet shall sound, And wake all the saints that sleep under the ground! The sound of the trumpet shall bid you arise, To meet your re-

Tr.
1. place where redemption is found.
2. -demp-tion from sorrow and woe.
3. pur-chased re-demp-tion for thee.
4. heads, your redemption draws near.
5. -demp-tion with joy and surprise.

T.
1. And march to the place where redemption is found.
2. And there find re-demption from sorrow and woe.
3. Your Savior has purchased redemption for thee.
4. Then lift up your heads, your redemption draws near.
5. To meet your re-demption with joy and surprise.

B.
1. place where redemption is found.
2. -demp-tion from sorrow and woe.
3. pur-chased re-demp-tion for thee.
4. heads, your redemption draws near.
5. -demp-tion with joy and surprise.

6. And then loving Jesus our souls will receive,
From bonds of corruption our bodies relieve;
Then we shall be perfect, and we shall be free.
We'll sing of redemption wherever we be.

7. Redeemed from sin and redeemed from death,
Redeemed from corruption, redeemed from the earth,
Redeemed from damnation, redeemed from all woe,
We'll sing of redemption wherever we go.

8. Redeemed from pain and redeemed from distress,
The fruits of redemption no tongue can express;
Redemption was purchased by Jesus' free love,
We'll sing of redemption in heaven above.

A folk hymn, based in part on the old English folk song The Grenadier and the Lady (Jackson 1953a, no. 46; 1953b, no. 42).

This tune was re-harmonized for four voices by Ananias Davisson in the Supplement to the Kentucky Harmony in 1820, and by Allen Carden in The Missouri Harmony in 1820; Davisson's version was reprinted in The Southern Harmony in 1835.