

Abraham's Children

Unison

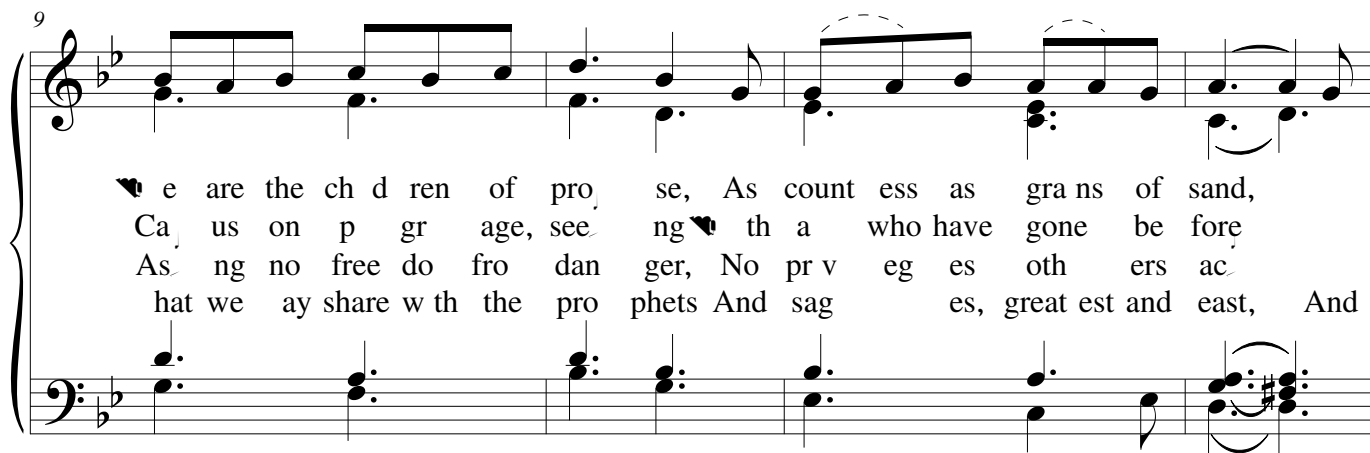

We are the sons and the daughters Of Abraham and Abraham,
 We have been given a vision Of justice for strong and weak,
 Merciful God, you have called us to go from our settled ways,
 Grant we may enter the country that is coming into view.

5

Journeying onward as they did, In search of the promised land,
 No more oppression and violence, And thus is the land we see,
 With our dreams of peace and safety, And to offer you our praise,
 Here at our warfare is ended And everything is made new,

9

We are the children of promise, As countless as grains of sand,
 Calling on pilgrimage, seeing that a whole world has gone before,
 Asking no freedom from danger, No privilege over others,
 That we may share with the prophets And sages, greatest and east, And

Abraham's Children

13

But aliens here and strangers In search of the promised and Justice for all of God's children, And the end of greed and war,
On only your presence among us, O keep us from turning back with Abraham and Sarah, A

17

pace at the Lab's high feast

MICHAEL Children of Promise
© 2012 All rights reserved
O'DONNELL Christopher L. Leiber
All rights reserved. Used by permission