

Seq
6

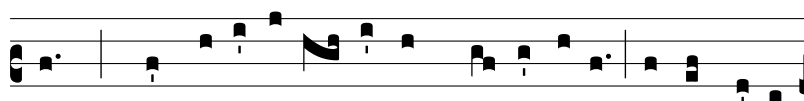

A

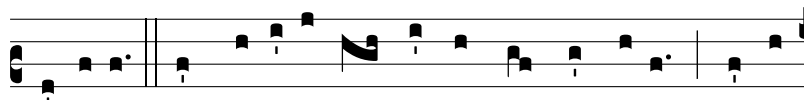

-ve, Ma-rí- a, grá-ti- a pléna: Dóminus técum, vírgo se-réna. Benedícta tu in mu-li- é-ri-bus: Quae pepe-rísti pá-cem homí-nibus, Et ánge-lis gló-ri- am. Et benedíctus frúctus véntris tú-i: Qui cohaerédes ut essémus sú-i Nos fé-cit per grá-ti- am.

Per hoc autem A ve, Múndo tam su-áve, Contra cár-nis jú-ra, Genu- ísti pró-lem: Nó-vum stélla só-lem

Nó-va geni- tú-ra. Tu pá-rvi et má-gni, Le- ónis et

A -gni, Salva-tó-ris Chrísti, Témplum exsti-tí-sti, Sed vírgo intácta. Tu fó-ris et ró- ris, Pá- nis et Pastó- ris, Vírginum re-gína, Ró-sa sine spí-na,

Hail Mary, full of grace,
The Lord is with you—O serene virgin.

Blessed are you among women, you who bore peace for humankind
and glory for the angels.

And blessed is the fruit of your womb—
he who makes us his heirs
through grace,
so that we might be his.

But though this “Ave” —
So pure and sweet,
Contrary to the law of the flesh—

You, O star, through a new birth Brought forth your offspring,
The new sun.

You stand out as the temple
Of the humble and the great,
Of the lion and the lamb,
Of Christ the savior—
Yet you remain a virgin.

You have been made mother
Of the bud and the dew,
Of the bread and the shepherd
You are queen of virgins, Rose without thorns.

You are the city of the king of justice,
You are mother of
mercy,
From the pool of
impurity and misery
You recast one who
through grace
becomes a lover of God.

You the celestial curia together praises in song,
To You our services
are devoted,
You who are mother
and daughter of God, Through You the pardon for guilt is offered.

Therefore star of the sea,
Sanctuary of the word of God
And dawn of the sun,
Door of paradise
Through which the Light is born:

Pray to Him your Son,
That He might free us
from sins,
And place us in the kingdom of clarity,
Where the sedulous
light shines
Through all ages.
Amen.