

Isaac Watts, 1719
(Psalm 69) 88. 88. (L. M.)

Fitchburg

No copyright. Transcribed from The Psalm-Singer's Amusement.

A minor
William Billings, 1779
Revised after 1781

Treble
Counter
Tenor
Bass

1. Deep in our hearts let us re - cord The deep - er
2. In long com - plaints He spends His breath, While hosts of
3. Yet, grac - ious God, Thy power and love Has made the
4. The pangs of our ex - pir - ing Lord give The hon - ors
5. O for His sake our guilt for - And let the

Tr.
C.
T.
B.

8 10
sor - rows of our Lord. Be - hold the ris - ing hell, and powers of death, And all the sons of curse a bles - sing prove; Those dread - ful suffer - ings of the law re - stored; His sor - rows made Thy mourn - ing sin - ner live; The Lord will hear us

Tr.
C.
T.
B.

8 15
bil - lows roll, To ov - er - whelm His ho - ly soul.
mal - ce, join To ex - e - cute their cursed de - sign.
of Thy Son A - toned for sins which we had done.
jus - tice known, And paid for fol - lies not His own.
in His name, Nor shall our hope be turned to shame.