

approximates them with great force. The ataxy of some were epileptic. The muscular contractions seemed some support from an examination of the statistics of fatal | in 66. and abscess of the spleen in 39—a very different proof the upper and middle third."¹⁰ It does not appear that the weak and both limbs anæsthetic. In a fortnight recovery